

WORLD FOOD MARKETS

A useful resource for ACC community members and others.

Han Ah Reum Mart aka "Hmart"

2751 South Parker Rd

Aurora, CO 80014

(303) 745-4592

This place is enormous, it's Korean actually but caters to Thai, Vietnamese, Chinese, and other countries foods. Food stamps accepted, everything from fruits and vegetables to dried foods to fish and meat and household décor.

Ngoc Anh Supermarket

11201 E Colfax Ave

(303) 340-8539

Asian markets, sell really cheap rice (50 pounds is just $20), fish, veggies, straw mats, spices, teas, etc. Food stamps accepted.

Little Saigon Supermarket

375 S. Federal Blvd, #104

Denver, CO 80238

(303) 937-8860

This is one of several Asian (more Vietnamese clientele) markets on this strip of S Federal, so if you go here you will be in the right neighborhood. They sell foods, fish, veggies, spices, floor mats, etc. Food stamps accepted.

Pacific Ocean International Marketplace

2200 W Alameda Ave

Denver, CO 80223

(303) 936-4845

Variety of Asian goods, especially Chinese, food stamps accepted, fresh tofu and seafood, dried noodles, other standard items.

World Food Bazaar

242 Havana St, Suite C

Aurora, CO 80010

(720) 858-1112

Great for halal meat (goat, beef, lamb etc), African, Middle eastern and Indian foods, clothes, spices and movies. It is owned by a Pakistani couple and they even let you pay on layaway. Plus they donated food etc to ACC. Food stamps accepted.

Denver Halal Mini M
10200 E. Mississippi Ave
Denver, CO 80247
(303) 751-6661

This is a Somali store located behind the King Sooper's on Mississippi and Havana. It also has a clothing store and restaurant attached to it. They sell halal meat (goat, beef, lamb), spices, rice and more. Food stamps accepted.

Merkato Market
7227 E Colfax Ave
Denver, CO 80220
(303) 399-6116

This is an Ethiopian/Eritrean market and the owner is really nice. It's also next to an Ethiopian restaurant. They sell injera of course, and meats, phone cards, spices, coffee and some clothing.

Monaco Grocery
6622 E Colfax Ave
Denver, CO 80220
(303) 377-8883

This is more like a local convenience store, Ethiopian run, and they also burn DVDs and sell some African music.

Marhaba International Market
6879 Leetsdale Dr
Denver, CO 80224
(303) 333-7653

Ethiopian run market—sells coffee, spices, injera, etc. Food stamps accepted.

Kantamanto African Caribbean Store
495 Havana St
Aurora, CO 80010
(303) 360-7200

This is a Ghanaian grocery store that sells West African and Caribbean foods, spices and calling cards, food stamps are accepted.

Solo African Market
1447 Florence St.,
Aurora, CO 80040
(303) 366-1304

This is more West African as the owner is Senegalese. They sell West African foods and spices and there is a Senegalese restaurant next door and they have an extensive collection of CD and DVDs that are all just $5 each. Food stamps not yet accepted.

International Market
2020 S Parker Rd
Denver, CO 80231
(303) 695-1090

Halal meat, Middle eastern, Asian, African, food stamps accepted.

Jerusalem International Market
4101 E Evans Ave
Denver, CO 80222
(303) 691-2330

Middle eastern market, sell halal meat, spices, rice, food stamps not yet accepted.

Kejetia International Market
576 Hanover Way
Aurora, CO 80010
(303) 326-0016

Ghanaian owned, food stamps not yet accepted, sell west African clothes, phone cards, spices, foods.

Nazar International Market
1842 S Parker Rd
Denver, CO 80231

Turkish owned, sell halal meat, phone cards, other middle eastern foods, food stamps not accepted.

The Crossover International Market
4844 Chambers Rd
Denver, CO 80239
(720)374-4813

Jamaican and Caribbean foods, phone cards, spices, food stamps approved.

Add: Senegalese store by Mississippi, other Somali store by Havana.